MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller LBK

SUBJECT : Fifteen Year Plan

1. Mr. Borel misunderstood the results of the last meeting -- or else I did.

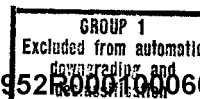

2. Did you not expect an entire CIA fifteen year plan to be prepared between now and next September? yes.

3. Mr. Cline apparently has been told that the group will be concerned only with Assumptions and Objectives during this period. I don't know how Borel could have understood this, since it was made pretty clear that we would try to get both the Assumptions and Objectives in final form during this week in order to get this new group off to a flying start in preparing a fifteen year program.

4. If my understanding is correct, then the DD/I is not doing what it ought to be doing now and is waiting to do something which it won't have to do. agree. Please made.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

SUBJECT : Long Range Planning

1. Pursuant to your request of 11 June I propose to designate the following personnel from the Directorate of Intelligence to serve on the planning group exercise:

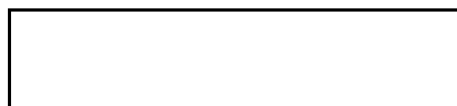

25X1A

Senior DDI Representative
DDI Representative
DDI Representative

2. I understand that, while the demands upon the members may not require them to spend full time, the planning task will have first claim upon them. I will therefore wish to review these assignments on 1 September when the Assumptions and Intelligence Objectives phases have been completed.

3. Procedurally, I believe that requirements for supporting the group which cannot be met by its members acting as individuals should be levied upon the directorates through command channels, in our case through the ADDI.

RAY S. CLINE

Deputy Director for Intelligence

Mr. Clarke,

I left a note for
Ray Cline telling him that Bobel (who is on leave) has misled him and hinting that he ought to have the Assumptions and Objectives ready for next
Monday's meeting.
